

THE ABILENE REFLECTOR.

VOL. 4.

ABILENE, DICKINSON COUNTY, KANSAS. JULY 7, 1887.

NO. 45

From Wednesday's Daily. Taken to Minneapolis.

Deputy-Sheriff Thompson this afternoon took Sam Grover, the mule thief, to Minneapolis, where he will cool his heels awaiting trial.

Another Big Building.

Geo. B. Seeley, of Alma, Col., who owns the row of frame buildings on the west side of Cedar street, between A and First streets, will in September erect a fine brick building to occupy the whole block. Three large store rooms will be built on the ground floor.

A New Brick.

Provided that the city fathers will vacate the wedge on Spruce and Second St. corner, B. H. D. H. will commence the erection of a fine three story brick building, to cost $15,000. The corner is one of the best in town, and such an improvement would be a highly desirable one.

Exciting Times.

The arrest, fine and confinement of the three C. K. & W. men, Winfield, Chas. Day and Wm. Murray, initiated yesterday, kicked up no end of excitement today. As several threats had been made by the friends of the prisoners, that they would deliver them from the confinement that the cooler grants, the jail was closely guarded last night, and Sheriff Miller, who had the mule thief Grover incarcerated, kept him over night at his own residence, for fear of his escaping should the delivery take place. Such an event failed to happen, however, and the town was as quiet and orderly as ever. This morning Marshal Kirkwood searched the men, taking from them $32.00, $7.40 and $41.35, respectively, and marched them to the stone pile on Second St., where they refused to work. Several petitions, praying the Mayor to release the men, return the money and cancel the fines, were circulated and signed, but the Mayor refused to grant such petition, for the reason that he had no power to do so. In order to release any city prisoners or remit any fines, it can only be done by a majority vote of the council.

The city marshal was telephoned for, and upon that complaint made the arrest.

The result has raised many and divers disputes upon the street today (all word disputes, we are glad to say) among our citizens who take different sides in the case. As an impartial chronicler of events, the REFLECTOR simply gives the facts in the matter.

The men are still held, and still refuse to work or pay the fines.

Just as we are going to press, Mayor Rice and Marshal Kirkwood returned from calling on Mr. King, the boss in Mr. Buckner's absence. He told them if the men wanted to get release, that they had better pay their fines. That the talk about tearing down the jail is all talk, and while here, the men will conduct themselves properly, if in their employ.

From Thursday's Daily.

The City Roller Mills are jubilant over the fact that they shipped out the first car load of flour over the C. K. & W., from Abilene.

E. W. Shutt left this morning for Abilene to buy a stock of carriages and buggies, and to fill several orders he has for fine spring work. — Russell Review.

W. A. Johnson died yesterday, at the residence of his son in West Abilene, of quick consumption. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock this morning. The deceased was sixty years of age.

Prof. Mulligan left for Chicago today noon. Monsieur Grooms takes his place as manager of the Stanton house billiard parlor, and is succeeded as night-clerk by Mr. Rugg, formerly of the Ellis house.

Robbery In Hope.

On Thursday night last, the jewelry store of C. H. Seiler, in Hope, was entered, and jewelry to the amount of $200 was taken. An entrance was effected by prying open a window.

Painted Red.

Berry Bros. delivery horse ran away yesterday afternoon. The wagon was filled with goods ready to be delivered, among which was a keg of red paint. The way the horse painted everything red, including himself, the wagon, and a number of groceries, was highly amusing.

The First Train.

The first passenger train out of Abilene on the C. K. & W. left on schedule time this morning, 7:50, with one lone passenger trying to fill the coach. The train was made up of R. G. M. & P. locomotive 316, one express car and one passenger coach. The iron steed was under the guidance of Engineer Riggs, and the train was in charge of Conductor Brown.

Skipped His Bond.

Some time ago George Stockton was arrested for breaking into Mr. Carney's house in Holland township and taking $3,000 worth of goods. C. S. Crawford and B. L. Strother went his bond for $500. Yesterday he was to have had his hearing in Quinn's court, but failed to materialize. Efforts are being made to run him down.

The True Inwardness of Last Night's Racket.

At four o'clock yesterday afternoon, John Bennett telephoned to the city clerk's office for the marshal to come over to his store, as there was a man drunk in front, "heaving up Jonah and the whale" on his sidewalk, and kicking up a disturbance. The disturber said he was looking for the marshal. Kirkwood was in another part of the city at the time, but half an hour after answered the message in person. The railroad had gone west on Third street, "looking for the marshal," he said. He was accompanied by five of his friends. Some time after the marshal found him in a place on the south side, highly boisterous, with a crowd around him, taking in the fun. He was told to desist, but answered insultingly. He then went out on the street and called for his companions, who followed and endeavored to take him away. This he refused to do. This was kept up until nine o'clock, a crowd following him wherever he went, and not over a dozen railroad men included. At nine o'clock Kirkwood again spoke to him at the Excelsior on Spruce street, telling him it was the last time: that if he did not obey he would be compelled to lock him up. The fellow said he would go when he got ready. The next seen of him was at half-past nine, in front of Blevins & Co.'s where he was leaning against the post, and making his usual break of looking for the marshal. Kirkwood was in front of Kirby's bank, and walked up to the man saying "You must come with me." The words were no sooner out of his mouth than the man hauled off and struck at him. The marshal evaded the blow, and used his club twice, knocking the man down. Night-watch Applegate was at hand, and assisted in putting on the nippers, and taking him to jail. All this time the crowd was following. After the man was locked up, the five friends approached the marshal, saying that if he would turn the prisoner loose, they would give their word of honor that they would take him away, and answer for his not creating any further disturbance. Upon this promise the marshal released the man, who as soon as turned loose, squared himself, wanted room to make a talk, and commenced it. He was surrounded by his friends, who compelled him to desist, and started him off. They got as far as Berry Bros., when the crowd pressed around them, making the night hideous with their yells of "Turn 'em all loose," "Tear down the jail," and other remarks of an incendiary nature. The men finally succeeded in getting their man away, and the crowd's attention was then turned toward the jail. Here they remained until Sheriff Miller arrived, who succeeded in dispersing the excited assembly.

From Friday's Daily.

The Kansas Farm Mortgage Company will remove from their present location on Tuesday next, to the rooms formerly occupied by Burton & Moore. The new quarters are only temporary, until some permanent location may be decided upon.

Shampooed With a Washbowl.

This afternoon Geo. Turner and Ed. Lucas, employed as barbers in Henry Hunter's shop, worked themselves up to a fighting pitch by an interchange of hot air. Lucas finally made a break at Turner, who struck him on the forehead with his fist. Lucas retaliated by giving Turner a whack over the head with a washbowl. By this time Marshal Kirkwood appeared upon the scene, and hostilities ceased. Judge Dewey, where they pleaded guilty. The peace and dignity of our corporation was damaged $5.00 and costs, for each belligerent.

The Crop Prospect.

The rain we have just had has done an incalculable amount of good to the crops, and the farmers are generally rejoicing. Everything points to the most successful year in the history of Abilene. The wheat harvest is the only drawback. But a small area had been sown, and about ten per cent. of that harvested. "King Corn" comes to the front in great shape, and the crop will be forty per cent over last year's, the biggest ever raised in the county. The oats are in splendid condition, and the corn will be big. The potato yield will be 30 per cent over that of last year. The stock is in fine condition, the grass was never better, "everything is lovely and the goose hangs high."

The "Bad Man" Again.

At half-past eleven last night, City Marshal Kirkwood was called from his bed by one of his deputies, who announced the pleasing information that the "bad man" wanted to make a sandwich of the marshal. The b. m. was found in Strickler's restaurant, and the usual crowd was taking him in. The city marshal tackled him, fired him out of the place, put on the nippers, and with his deputies took him to jail. Sheriff Miller kept the crowd back, and made them disperse. John Baldwin, as he is called, was brought up before the P. J. this morning, and fined $15.00 and costs, $7.75, for disturbing the peace and quiet of the city. He acknowledged that he had been acting like a fool, and told the marshal that he had no fault to find with him; that he was full, and the crowd that followed him helped to excite him, and made him act worse than if he had been "going it alone."

Neighborhood News.

Topeka, capital of the state, cannot afford to light her streets, but Atchison, Leavenworth, Wichita, Hutchinson, Abilene, Salina, and a hundred smaller towns have enough prosperity to do so. What is Topeka's boom worth, anyway? — Minneapolis Messenger.

Mr. Lebold, late owner of the Merchants' Hotel, Abilene, was down to Hope Saturday bidding his many friends good-bye, as he starts to Scotland in a short time to visit the scenes of his childhood. * * * John R. Harbottle, of Abilene, was a Hope visitor on the 25th, and from the way he was looking around our town, we suspect he has serious intentions to come down and be one of us. Come on! * * * Mr. G. A. Jackson took a stroll over Abilene on the 27th, and reports seeing a broad grin on every face he met, and a cat on every corner. — Hope Herald.

It Might Have Been Fatal.

Messrs. Thos. G. Croft, of Pittsburg; and Will J. Croft, of Philadelphia, accompanied by Misses Grace Croft, of Chambersburg, Kate Croft, of Abilene, Kan., and Emma Stevick, of Shippensburg, met with an accident that might have been serious, while on their way from Chambersburg to this place yesterday afternoon in a two-horse conveyance. When about two miles from town, the yoke strap broke and the horses started to run. Mr. Will Croft, who was driving, found himself unable to control the frantic animals, and they continued their mad career until a wheel broke, which accident had the effect of throwing the occupants of the carriage out into the road. Fortunately, all five escaped serious injury, although two of the ladies and one of the gentlemen were more or less sprained by the fall. The horses, meanwhile, broke loose from the wrecked vehicle and continued on toward Gettysburg, until stopped by the keeper of the toll gate near town. — Gettysburg (Pa.) Truth.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it with out immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as $0.00 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try, sold at 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by all druggists and Dealers, in the United States and Canada.

AN EPIDEMIC.

A Violent Form of Cholera Morbus at Belknap, Iowa, Prostrates the Whole Community.

A PLAIN STATEMENT OF THE FACTS BY A LEADING MERCHANT OF THE TOWN.

Last summer we had an epidemic in this community in the form of cholera morbus. Nearly ever man, woman and child was prostrated by it, and it seemed to be a very violent form. We tried every medicine we had or could find without relief. I then went to Ottumwa and Blake, Bruce & Co., wholesale druggists, advised me to take home Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I did so and distributed it, and it gave relief immediately, it worked like magic. I ordered more of the remedy at once, and sold it during the day at my store, and at night at my home. I sold as much during the night as I did during the day. The people here can not say enough in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. J. H. Helwig, Merchant, Belknap, Iowa. Sold by Barnes & Northcraft.
